STUDENT BEHAVIOR AND DISCIPLINARY CODE

Discipline Philosophy

The Lafayette School Corporation Board of School Trustees believes that learning takes place in an environment that is safe, caring, positive, cooperative, pleasant, and challenging. It is the policy of the Lafayette School Corporation to provide students with an environment that will enable them to focus upon learning as their major goal. In order for the expected learning environment to exist, students must conduct themselves with self-control, exhibiting respect for the rights of fellow students, teachers, administrators, and other employees. Self-discipline is the controlling behavior. Self-discipline is best defined as the control exhibited in an individual's behavior so that the civil rights and dignity of others are protected. Parental involvement, guidance, and support are necessary aspects in the development of student self-discipline.

Behavior of any student that disrupts the learning environment of others or creates conditions, which jeopardize the safety of others, will cause discipline procedures to be initiated by teachers, and/or administrative personnel. School personnel will use discipline procedures throughout the corporation in order to maintain the expected learning environment.

Lafayette School Corporation does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, or national origin in regard to disciplinary actions against students who choose to violate school corporation rules and regulations.

Restorative Practice

While negative consequences can impact student behavior, it is often even more impactful to direct the student to repair the harm that they have done. Tecumseh strives to implement restorative practices alongside negative consequences and in some cases in lieu of negative consequences in order to repair the harm to the relationships between offenders and victims, and offenders and the community that resulted from their actions. Restorative practices allow the response to shift from strictly punishment of the offender towards a focus on positive outcomes for both parties.

Lunch Detentions

A lunch detention may be assigned when a student violates classroom or school rules. A lunch detention is assigned by an administrator but individual teachers have the ability to assign their own lunch detention as well. Students receiving lunch detention will be given prior notice. Failure to serve a teacher detention will result in a referral to an administrator.

Teacher Detentions

A teacher detention may be assigned when a student violates classroom or school rules. A teacher detention is assigned by a classroom teacher. The student will be given a 24-hour notice prior to serving the detention. Failure to serve a teacher detention will result in a referral to an administrator.

Monday & Wednesday Office Detentions

Office Detentions may be assigned when a student violates classroom or school rules. An Office Detention is assigned by an administrator. The student will be given a 24-hour notice prior to serving the Monday/Wednesday detention. Failure to serve an Office Detention will result in a referral to an administrator. Office Detentions are held from 3:30-4:30 each Monday and Wednesday. Students serving a Wednesday/Friday detention will be released from the front office at 4:30.

Saturday Office Detentions

Saturday detentions may be assigned when a student violates classroom or school rules. A Saturday detention is assigned by an administrator. The student will be given a 24-hour notice prior to serving the Saturday detention. Failure to serve a Saturday detention will result in a referral to an administrator. Saturday detentions are held from 9:00 am -12:00 pm each Saturday. Students serving a Saturday detention will be released from the front office at 12:00 pm.

In-School Suspension

In-school suspension is utilized when a student's removal from class is necessary to maintain a school climate that is conducive to student learning and safety. A student may be assigned to in-school suspension for the period or the entire day depending on the level of classroom disruption they have caused.

Out-of-School Suspension

Out-of-school suspension is utilized when a student's removal from Lafayette Tecumseh Junior High School is necessary to maintain a school environment that is conducive to student learning and safety. A student may be assigned to out-of-school suspension for up to ten days.

Possession of Tobacco/Vape

Indiana Law prohibits young adults under the age of eighteen to possess or purchase tobacco products. If a student is found in possession of tobacco the following two things may occur:

- In school suspension or out-of-school suspension for up to five days.
- Police may be notified and a ticket issued for possession of tobacco by a minor.

Off School Grounds

The school has responsibility for students while they are going to school, attending school and returning home. During these times students who violate school rules or otherwise commit misdemeanor/felony offenses will be referred to the appropriate administrator and/or police for appropriate action. Indiana law states that a student may be expelled or suspended for engaging in unlawful activity on or off school grounds if the unlawful activity may reasonably be considered to be an interference with school purposes or an educational function.

DISCIPLINE

Recognizing that the behavior of some students may be so disruptive that it interferes with school purposes or educational functions of the school corporation, school officials may find it necessary to discipline a student. In this event and in accordance with the provisions of I.C. 20-33-8-14, administrators and staff members may take the following actions:

1. REMOVAL FROM CLASS OR ACTIVITY - TEACHER:

A teacher may remove a student from his/her class or activity for a period of up to one (1) school day if the student is assigned regular or additional work to be completed in another school setting.

2. SUSPENSION FROM SCHOOL - PRINCIPAL:

A school principal (or designee) may deny a student the right to attend school or take part in any school function for a period of up to ten (10) school days.

3. EXPULSION:

A student may be expelled for a period no longer than the remainder of the current semester plus the following semester, with the exception of possession of a firearm, destructive device, or a deadly weapon listed under the Grounds for Suspension or Expulsion, which may result in an expulsion period of at least one calendar year.

- 3. Following the suspension, the parent or guardian of a suspended student will be notified in writing. The notification will include the dates of the suspension, describe the student's misconduct, and the action taken by the principal.

EXPULSION PROCEDURES

When a principal (or designee) recommends to the superintendent (or designee) that a student be expelled from school, the following procedures will be followed:

2. An expulsion will not take place until the student and the student's parent or guardian are asked to appear at an expulsion meeting conducted by the superintendent or the person designated above. Failure by a student or a student's parent or guardian to appear at this meeting will be deemed a waiver of rights administratively to contest the expulsion or to appeal it to the school board.
 3. The request to appear at the expulsion meeting will be in writing, delivered by certified mail or by personal delivery, and contain the reasons for the expulsion and the date, time, place, and purpose of the meeting.
 4. At expulsion meeting, the principal (or designee), will present evidence to support the charges against the student. The student or parent will have the opportunity to answer the charges against the student, and to present evidence to support the student's position.
 5. If an expulsion meeting is held, the person conducting the expulsion meeting will make a written summary of the evidence heard at the meeting, take any action found to be appropriate, and give notice of the action taken to the student and the student's parent.

The student or parent has the right to appeal the decision of the person conducting the expulsion meeting to the school board within ten (10) days of the receipt of notice of the action taken. The student or parent appeal to the school board must be in writing. If an appeal is properly made, the board must consider the appeal unless the board votes not to hear the appeal. If the board hears the appeal, it will consider the written summary of the expulsion meeting and the arguments of both the school administration and the student and/or the student's parent or legal guardian. The board will then take any action deemed appropriate. The Board will not hear the appeal if the appeal meets the following criteria:

- A. The student has not been expelled or required to attend an alternative school.
- B. The expulsion officer has found the student has engaged in prohibited conduct of the type enumerated below, unless a.) the student has denied commission of the misconduct for which the expulsion has been ordered and b.) significant new evidence favorable to the student and not available at the time of the expulsion meeting has been discovered, and is specifically described in the request for appeal:

 - g. Intentionally behaving in such a way as to endanger the safety of any person, except where self-defense or reasonable action undertaken on the reasonable belief that it was necessary to protect some other person has been raised at the expulsion meeting as a defense to finding of a violation of this provision.
 - h. Threatening or intimidating any student or school employee for the purpose of, or with the intent of, obtaining money or anything of value from the student.
 - i. Except for approved school purposes, knowingly possessing, handling, or transmitting a knife or any other object that can reasonably be considered a weapon, or looks like a weapon.

Proper medical use of a prescription or non-prescription drug is not a violation of this subdivision.
 - k. Engaging in the selling of a controlled substance or engaging in a criminal law violation that constitutes a danger to other students or constitutes an interference with school purposes or an education function.
 - l. Possessing, using, transmitting, or selling tobacco.
- C. The student has admitted the rule violation for which expulsion has been ordered, unless the appeal is limited to a challenge to the imposition of expulsion or the length of the expulsion imposed.
- D. The length of the expulsion imposed is less than one semester or is the remainder of the current semester.
