Volume 7 Issue 14

Let it Snow, Let it Snow, Let it Snow.

Coming soon...

- * AR Contracts are to be completed by Friday, December 20th. Please check with your child about his/her progress if necessary.
- * Please be sure students have jackets, hats, gloves etc. for cold weather recess. We go outside any chance we can.
- * Please let us know if your child is leaving early for winter break. Because it is the end of the quarter, they may need to complete some assignments before you leave.

Reading: Mrs. Hill

We are beginning our biography genre study today. Students will use the biography they picked to read for several mini-projects in class. Many students have found biographies to read on Epic. Maybe you could find a fun winter read to read aloud as a family! Students still enjoy being read to, and you could finish a book over winter break. Suggestions: Greenglass House, Family Under the Bridge, The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe.

Science: Ms. Mullins

We began our Electricity unit by watching “The Magic School Bus Gets Charged” and hearing vocabulary such as connection, charges, circuits, static electricity and electric path. Thanks to Ms. Wilkie for teaching students about static electricity!

If you are on Twitter you can follow Mrs. P’s Lizards @p_lizards for daily snapshots of fourth grade goings on. Our Charlie Brown Thanksgiving was a huge hit! Thanks for your support.

Virginia Studies: Ms. Mullins

Students are completing their Jamestown timeline to get ready for the end of our unit. We also read “Reader’s Theater” stories about the colony. Study guides will be coming home today in VA Studies folders. Students should also review other folder papers and notes in their notebooks for the upcoming test Thursday, December 5th.

Math: Mrs. Pleasant:

We are back in the swing with factors, and will begin multiples, graphing and patterns later in the week. An JXL review sheet will sent home today or tomorrow. Be on the lookout.

Almost 1/3 of the fourth grade students are 100% fluent in x and / 0-12 facts on Reflex. Some are sooooo close that we should be able to reach 50% by 2020.

Think Central, the online math resources, can be accessed through the GLE webpage, through the Student Menu.
